CODE OF CONDUCT

PREAMBLE

Public confidence of Fire Commissioners is eroded by irresponsible or improper conduct by Fire Commissioners. A Fire Commissioner must expect to be the subject of public scrutiny. The prohibition against behaving improperly or in an irresponsible manner applies to both the professional and personal conduct of a commissioner.

CHARACTERISTICS OF A FIRE COMMISSIONER

The following is designed to provide guidance to and for commissioners:

1. A Fire Commissioner should Respect and Comply with the Law and should Act at all times in a manner that promotes public confidence in the office of Fire Commissioner.
2. A Fire Commissioner should participate in Establishing, Maintaining, and Enforcing high standards of conduct, and should personally observe those standards.
3. Fire Commissioners should exhibit unquestionable Integrity. The commissioners should have an uprightness of character and soundness of moral principle.
4. Fire Commissioners should have a National Pride, a High Regard for the Constitution, and the authority of their office, and show respect for others through temperance, fairness, and civility in the execution of their duties and conduct of personal lives.

5. A Fire Commissioner should have the Courage to do what is right and if necessary stand up for those without authority.
6. A Fire Commissioner should have Compassion that is inherent to understanding another's problems while controlling and understanding personal feelings.

I COMMISSIONERS CODE OF ETHICS

1 Any Commissioner who has committed an act or acts of Malfeasance, or an act or acts of Misfeasance while in office, or has violated the Oath of Office, or is guilty of two or more acts specified in the Washington Constitution, or violations of the statutes and administrative directives applicable to fire districts, MAY be disciplined using penalties found in Section II.

For the purposes of this Association:

- (1) Misfeasance or malfeasance in office means any wrongful conduct that affects, interrupts, or interferes with the performance of official duties.
 - (a) Additionally "Misfeasance" in office means the performance of a duty in an improper manner; and
 - (b) "Malfeasance" in office means the commission of an unlawful act.
- (2) "Violation of The Oath of Office" means the neglect or knowing failure by an elected public official to perform faithfully a duty imposed by law.
- (3) Also prohibited are violations of RCW 42.23.030 and RCW 42.23.070 concerning ethical conflicts of interest such as interest in a contract directly or indirectly administered as a fire commissioner. Additionally a commissioner cannot
 - (a) Use their position to secure special privileges or exemptions,
 - (b) Give or receive any gift, rewards or gratuity related to their post,
 - (c) Accept employment or business that might induce them to disclose confidential information acquired by reason of their position, (divided loyalty)
 - (d) Or disclose confidential information gained by reason of their employment, or use such information for personal gain.
- (4) There are numerous other violations listed under RCW 42.20 and RCW 42.23 that are too numerous to list, but are included by reference in the Code.

II. PROCEDURES FOR THE IMPLEMENTATION OF INVESTIGATIONS AND PUNISHMENT

1. Upon receipt of a written, signed request for investigation of a possible ethics violation(s) the Executive Board of the Pierce County Fire Commissioners Association, by 2/3 majority may direct the President to appoint an investigative committee.
 - (1) The committee will be comprised of at least three disinterested commissioners, from three separate districts.
 - (2) The committee shall have two months after appointment to investigate the charges that have been made.
 - (3) The person being investigated will be given an opportunity to explain/rebut the charges that have been made.
 - (4) The committee will then report their findings to the President and Executive Board. The report will include recommendations for penalties if warranted.

2. If the investigating committee has found the charges to be valid, the Executive Board may direct the President to take one of the following steps:
 - (1) First Offense – minor infraction – The President, at the direction of the Executive Board, will notify the accused by letter of the findings, but no penalty will be assessed. (Copies of all letters retained for six years)
 - (2) First Offense – major infraction – (misfeasance, malfeasance, violation of Washington Constitution, or Violation of RCW's relating to fire departments) the President, at the direction of the Executive Board, will write a Letter of Censure with a cc to the State Commissioners Association. A copy will be made available to the recall committee if requested.
 - (3) Second or subsequent infractions – the President, at the direction of the Executive Board, will write a letter requesting that the commissioner refrain from attending County Fire Commissioners meetings and training, and the commissioner will be barred from Life Membership in the County Association. Again a letter will be sent to the State Association requesting similar measures, and copy will be available to a recall committee upon request.
